THE Ohio Legislature costs $1,500 per day, and the Akron Beacon complains that the members don't earn it. Tirk Buckhannon Delta says Judge CAMDEN of Harrison is the author of the Liquor Law, and did much to secure its Oun poetic and artistic friend, John L. COLE of Charleston, was appointed State Librarian Thursday by the (bogus) Board of Public Works.

IT appears from a Havana dispatch this morning that O'KELLY, the N. Y. Herald's "commissioner," is not in any danger of losing his life. He violated the usages of war, but his trial is to be more for the sake of form than for anything elsc.

"A WAR OF BACES" has sprung up in Grant Parish, Louisiana, and blacks and whites are contending for the possession of the parish seat of government which is named Colfax. What it is all about we have seen as yet no intelligent explanation.

IT is author itatively announced in England that the acquisition of the railways by the State is now seriously engaging the attention of the Government. One of the Cabinet Ministers is said to be investigating the subject, with the aid of several other officials and railroad experts, in order to arrive at conclusions as regards time and terms of purchase. A beginning is looked for next year, the purpose being to try the system first with the Irlsh railroads. If the negotiation can be satisfactorily perfected the larger operation of acquiring the English roads is expected to follow. The enormous power lodged in the hands of the Government by supreme control over the whole of the railroad lines seems to be regarded by many without dismay, yet the importance of this consideration some thinkers find pre-

THAT good old man, Pro Nono, scems about to resign his earthly temple, let us hope, for a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. His Pontificate has been marked by vicisaltudes, more momentous and significant than that of any other primate. He has lived to hear his own countrymen, devout Catholics, pronounce the divorce of the spiritual and temporal powers of the Church, in spite of all he could do to prevent it. He opposed the tradition of the papacy to the progressive liberalism of modern thought, and suffered the humiliation of realizing how impotent they were to arrest its onward march. But spite of all his mistakes, no Pork ever enjoyed to a greater extent the respect and popularity which all men vield as a willing homage to unblemished personal character and sincere plety.

THE DANBURY NEWS MAN. - Mr. James Montgomery Bailey, of the Danbury News, whose good things, accredited to that paper or not credited, are found in all the journals, is a native of Albany, and was born in 1841. His father was killed when James was a child. His mother at terward married a gentleman from Rome, N. Y. and at that place, and in Albany. N. Y., and at that place, and in Albany, the family lived until 1860, when they moved to Danbury, Conn. At this time James was eighteen years of age. He had find in most of the New York papers, atfree range of the public schools, though at fords a striking illustration of the rate of that time, like most boys, he preferred interest which has been exterted in New business. He checked this inclination, Nork for a year past from needy corpora-however, and remained at school until tions and their brokers: "Messrs. Tanner worked with his step-lather at carpentry until August, 1862. Then came the war, and with it the Danbury boy took his Grat practical lessons in original composition, sending letters home from the field. He returned, and with a triend bought two Danbury Paters. The paper was made strictly local, and it was not long before people discovered that one good paper was better than two poor ones. All this time the local notices which his arrival at Danbury, where he worked with his step-father at carpentry until August, 1863. Then came the war, both parties violate them—the one from necessity, and the other from greed. Better always submit to the inevitable than pay interest like this, for, sooner or later, the inevitable will come, with such a load to carry." All this time the local notices which have since made such a reputation, were slipping into the paper from time to time, and it soon became the fashion to copy them. Mr. Bailey is a married man, but

It is said that Senor Castellar, the Pres ident of the Spanish republic, is begining already to despair of the new order of Not only is the republic violently assalled by the Monarchists, who are con-stantly promoting the outbreaks of the Carlists, but it finds its worst focs among those who were its prolessed friends. The Communists and agrarians of the country are rising against it, and are doing their utmost to overthrow it. These people care nothing for real liberty, nothing for selfgovernment, or for any social interest whatever, save what they believe to be wrapped up in their wild theories of the rights of property. They ruined the republic of France in 1848, and they came near ruining that which sprang out of the over throw of the empire of Sedan, and which M. Thiers was scarcely able to save from their violence. They are the worst encmics of the republican cause to be found in Europe. They are against every form of government but their impracticable nune, and against all social order which recognizes the existence of accuwhich recognizes the existence of accumulated capital. It is not a matter of surprise that the President of the Spanish Republic threatens to resign his office amidst the great discouragements which are springing up around him. With insurgent Carlists and insurgent Communists continually in arms against him, in addition to all his other troubles, he naturally has faint hones for the new govern. urally has faint hopes for the new governCommercial Panics.
